

Hiding From Intimacy

From the Series

Healing Rain

Hurt → Hide & Isolate Ourselves (Build Up Walls) → Loss of Intimacy

“There need to be far more lessons in the ministry of the Word of true conversion than of the arguments of the doctrines, for it is far easier and more natural for the heart that is not under the control of the Spirit of Christ to choose doctrinal subjects rather than the practical. There are many Christless discourses given, no more acceptable to God than was the offering of Cain. They are not in harmony with God.”
{17 Manuscript Releases p 143}

Discussion Groups: Noah is your neighbor and friend. In fact, you are his only friend as he has isolated himself and his family from everyone else. He says that he does it to protect his family from the evils of this world. Recently, Noah has also begun separating himself and his family from the only fellowship that they have; the fellowship of the Church. When you visit him, you notice that his wife is detached from him and wears an extremely sad look on her face. You also know that one by one, his children are leaving the home, and are not keeping in touch. Noah has recently been calling you to ask for your advice on how to stop his wife and children from loving evil and from rejecting his biblical advice. What do you do?
