

Righteousness:
What Does It Look Like ?

“Righteousness is right doing”

Christ's Object Lessons p. 312

“The man who attempts to keep the commandments of God from a sense of obligation merely--because he is required to do so--will never enter into the joy of obedience. He does not obey. When the requirements of God are accounted a burden because they cut across human inclination, we may know that the life is not a Christian life.”

Christ's Object Lessons p. 97

“Righteousness means being good and doing good.”

Review and Herald, August 21, 1894 par. 6

“This heaven-born love is not selfish and changeable. It is not a love dependent on human praise.”

Signs of the Times, October 11, 1899 par. 6

“Righteousness is love...”

Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing p. 18

“Righteousness is love, and love is the light and the life of God. The righteousness of God is embodied in Christ. We receive righteousness by receiving Him.

Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing p. 18

Not by painful struggles or wearisome toil, not by gift or sacrifice, is righteousness obtained; but it is freely given to every soul who hungers and thirsts to receive it. "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat, . . . without money and without price." "Their righteousness is of Me, saith the Lord," and, "This is His name whereby He shall be called, The Lord Our Righteousness." Isaiah 55:1; 54:17; Jeremiah 23:6.
