The Supremacy Of Scripture

Dee Casper paconference.org/CORE

The reality of the Christian warfare and the toll it takes.

What is coming down the pike.

We are going to have to learn to wrestle with God like Jacob. For many it's going to take a personal crisis to learn this.

My own story.

God's Word has creative power. When He speaks things come into being. We cannot expect to have life and revival brought into our experience without His Word. We can pray for revival all we want, but we need to take His Word seriously and allow it to transform us.

We are in desperate need of having a living, breathing connection with Christ in His Word.

Don't expect to have power with God if you aren't communing with Him in Scripture.

People of power are people of communion.

It's not their charisma, gifting or genetics.

This is where Jesus got His strength.

The background is a stylized landscape illustration. It features a range of dark, silhouetted mountains in the distance. In the middle ground, there is a body of water. In the foreground, a large, craggy rock formation or island is visible, with a small, dark, conical structure on top. The sky is a gradient of dark blue and purple, suggesting a twilight or dawn scene. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Begin making that time a priority now if you have not done so yet.

The background is a dark, atmospheric landscape. In the foreground, there is a large, textured rock formation or cave entrance, rendered in a sketchy, charcoal-like style. The rock has various shades of grey and black, with some lighter areas suggesting highlights. Behind the rock, the landscape opens up to show rolling hills and mountains under a twilight sky. The sky is a gradient of dark blue and purple, with a hint of yellow light on the horizon. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

My challenge to you this evening is to make a commitment to read the whole Bible through in the next years.

I would also encourage you to read through the whole
Conflict of the Ages series.

My own story in doing this since 2011.

The background is a stylized landscape illustration. It features a range of dark, silhouetted mountains in the distance under a twilight sky with a soft yellow glow on the horizon. In the middle ground, a calm body of water reflects the scene. In the foreground, a large, craggy rock formation or island is depicted with intricate, dark, cross-hatched lines, suggesting a rough, textured surface. The overall color palette is muted, consisting of blues, greys, and a touch of yellow from the horizon.

Some other important lessons I'm learning for revival.

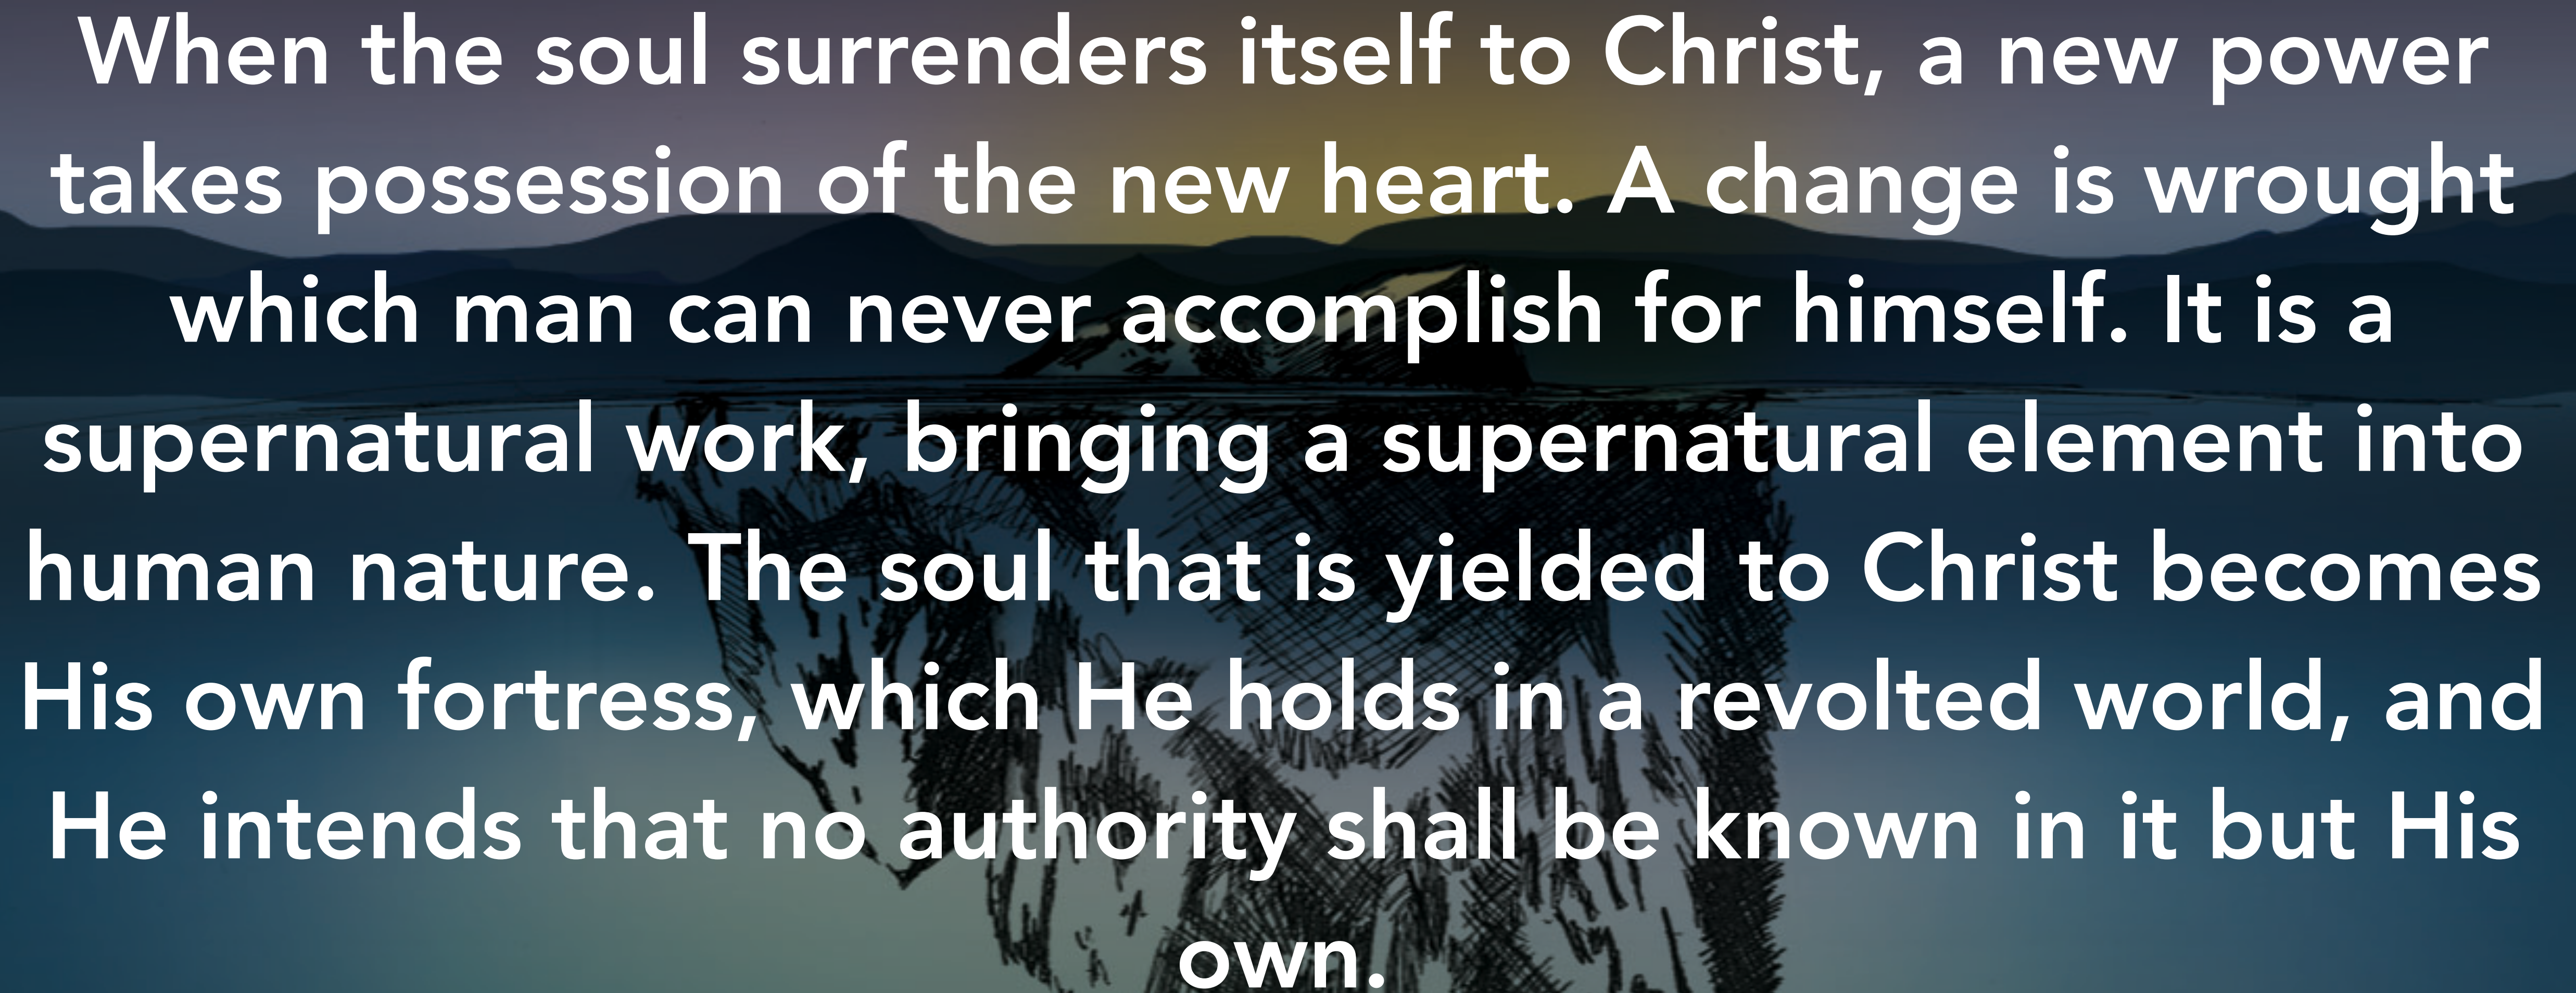

Surrender

Ananias & Saphira-The issue wasn't money, it was
surrender

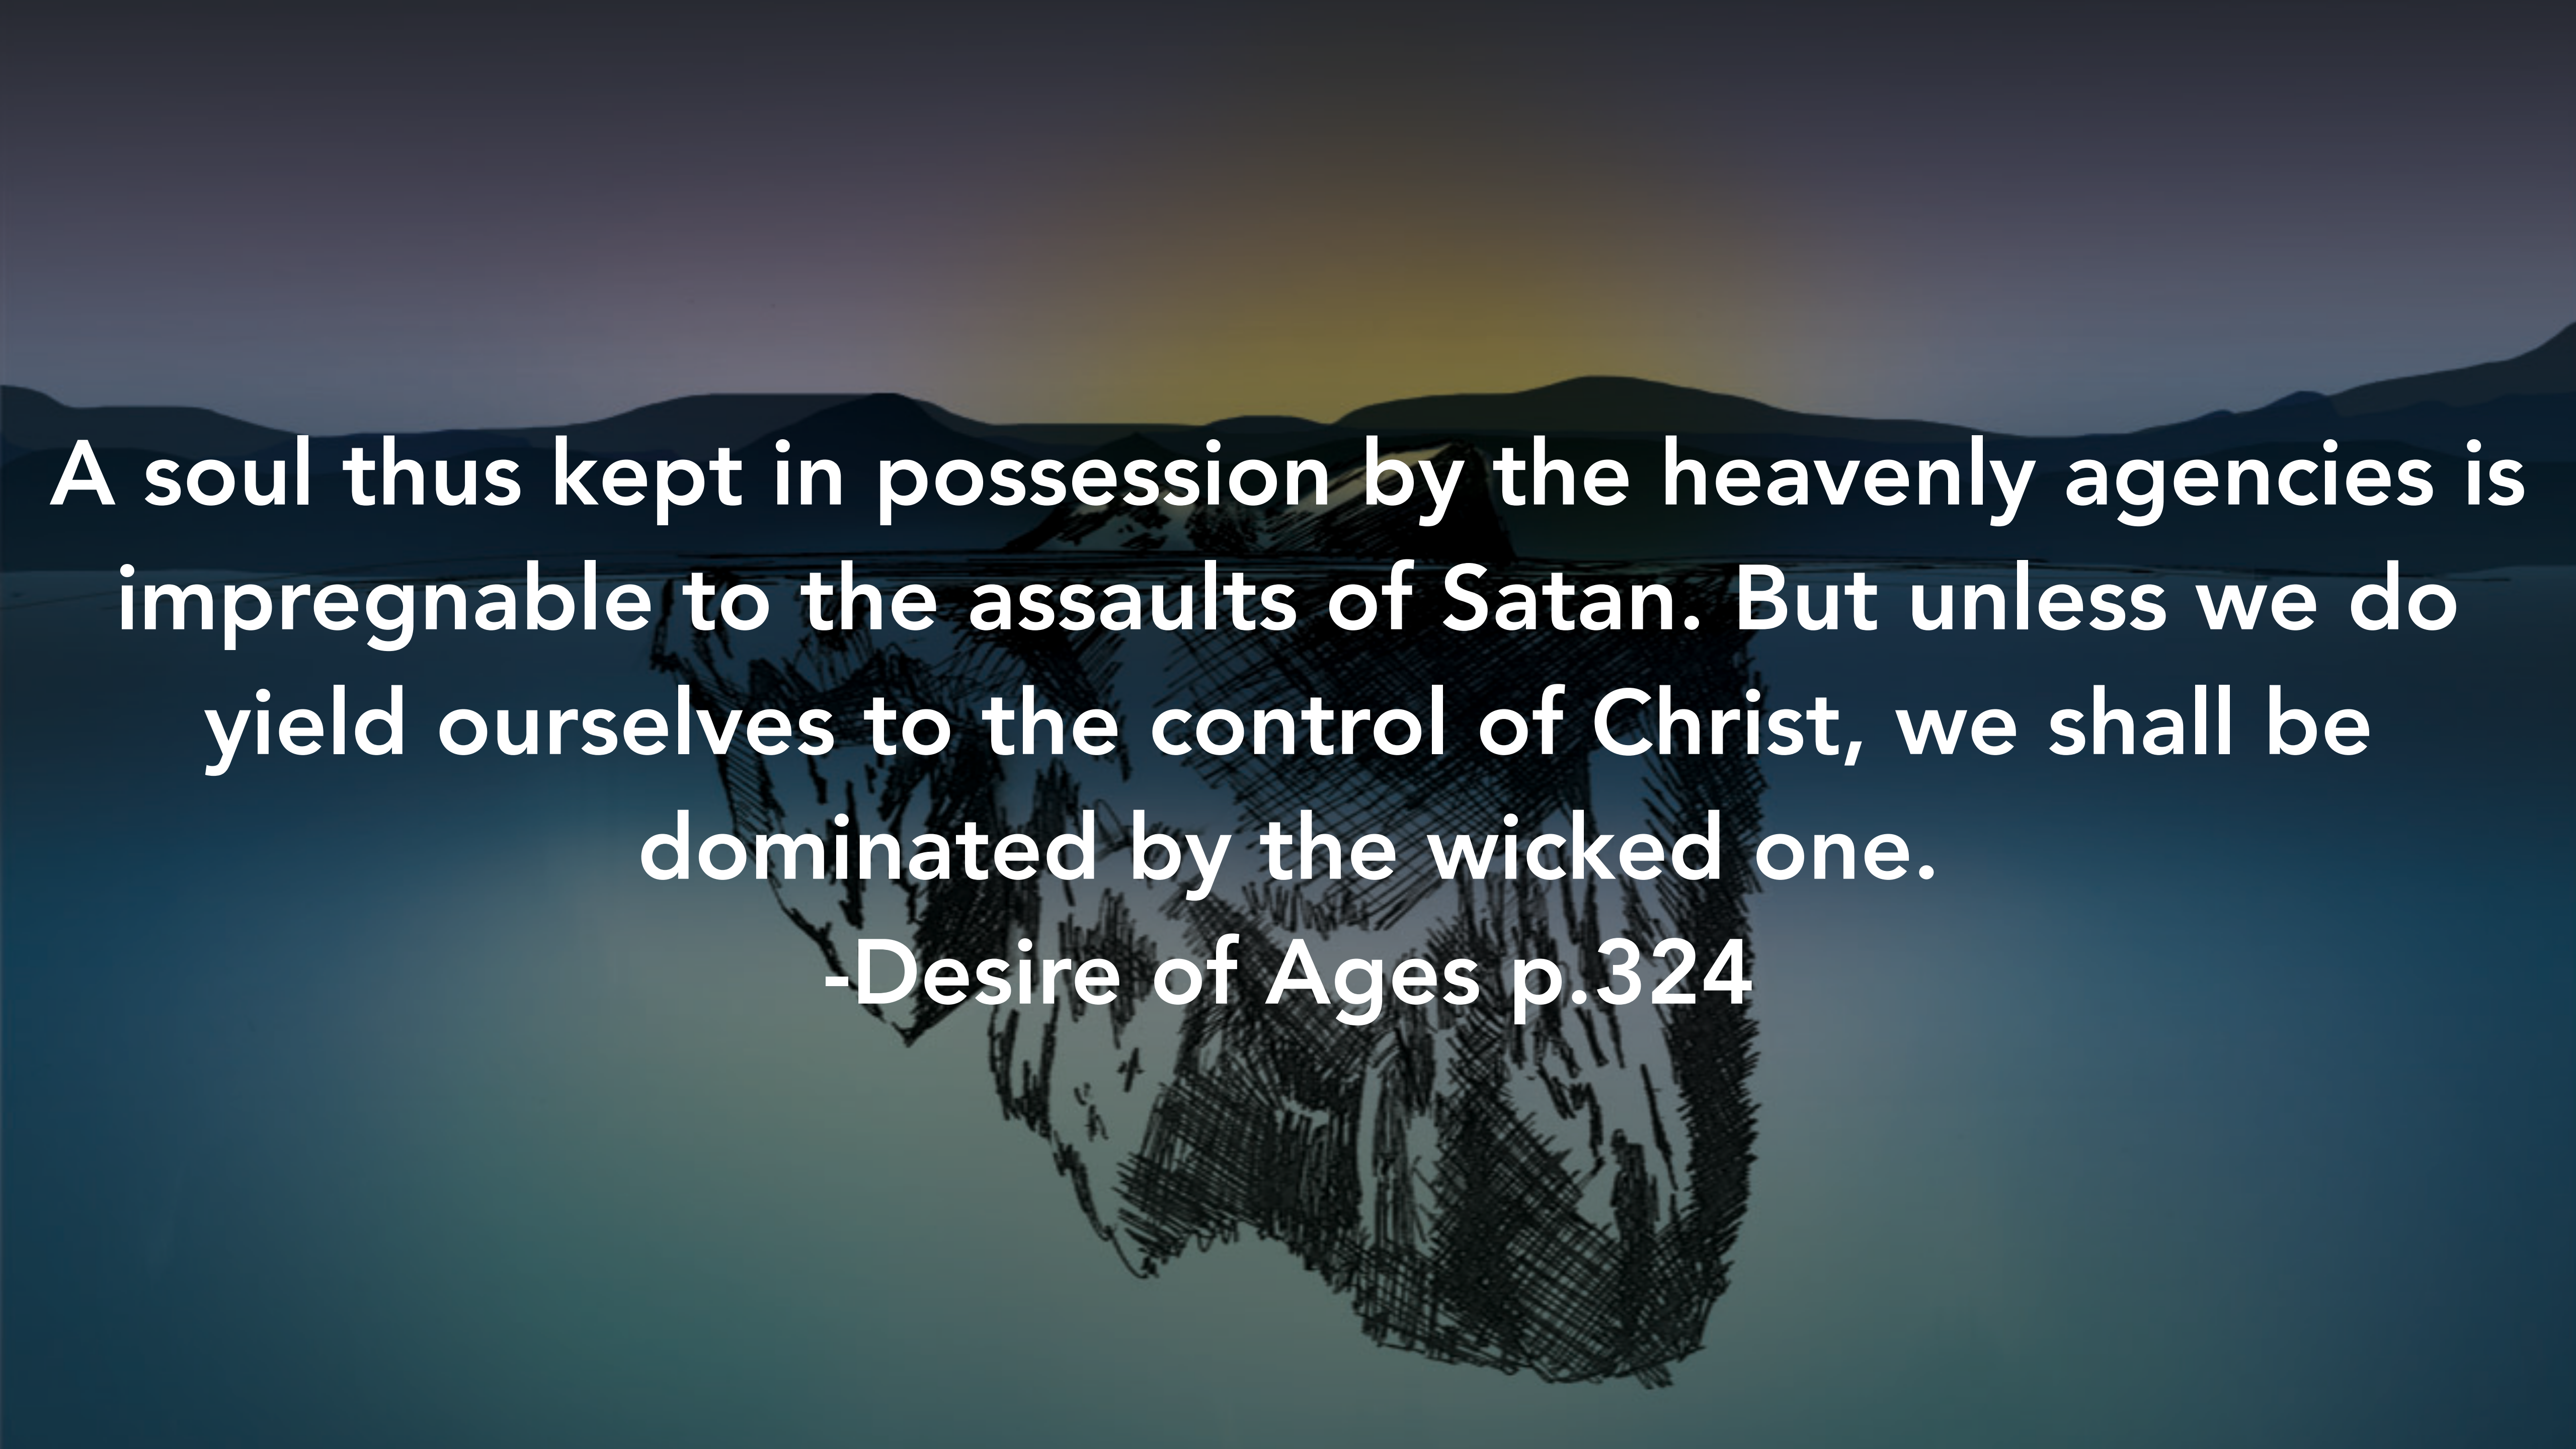

James 4:7 and order of priority

1 John 4:16-19 this is what makes surrender make sense and lose its legalistic feel

When the soul surrenders itself to Christ, a new power takes possession of the new heart. A change is wrought which man can never accomplish for himself. It is a supernatural work, bringing a supernatural element into human nature. The soul that is yielded to Christ becomes His own fortress, which He holds in a revolted world, and He intends that no authority shall be known in it but His own.

Desire of Ages p.324

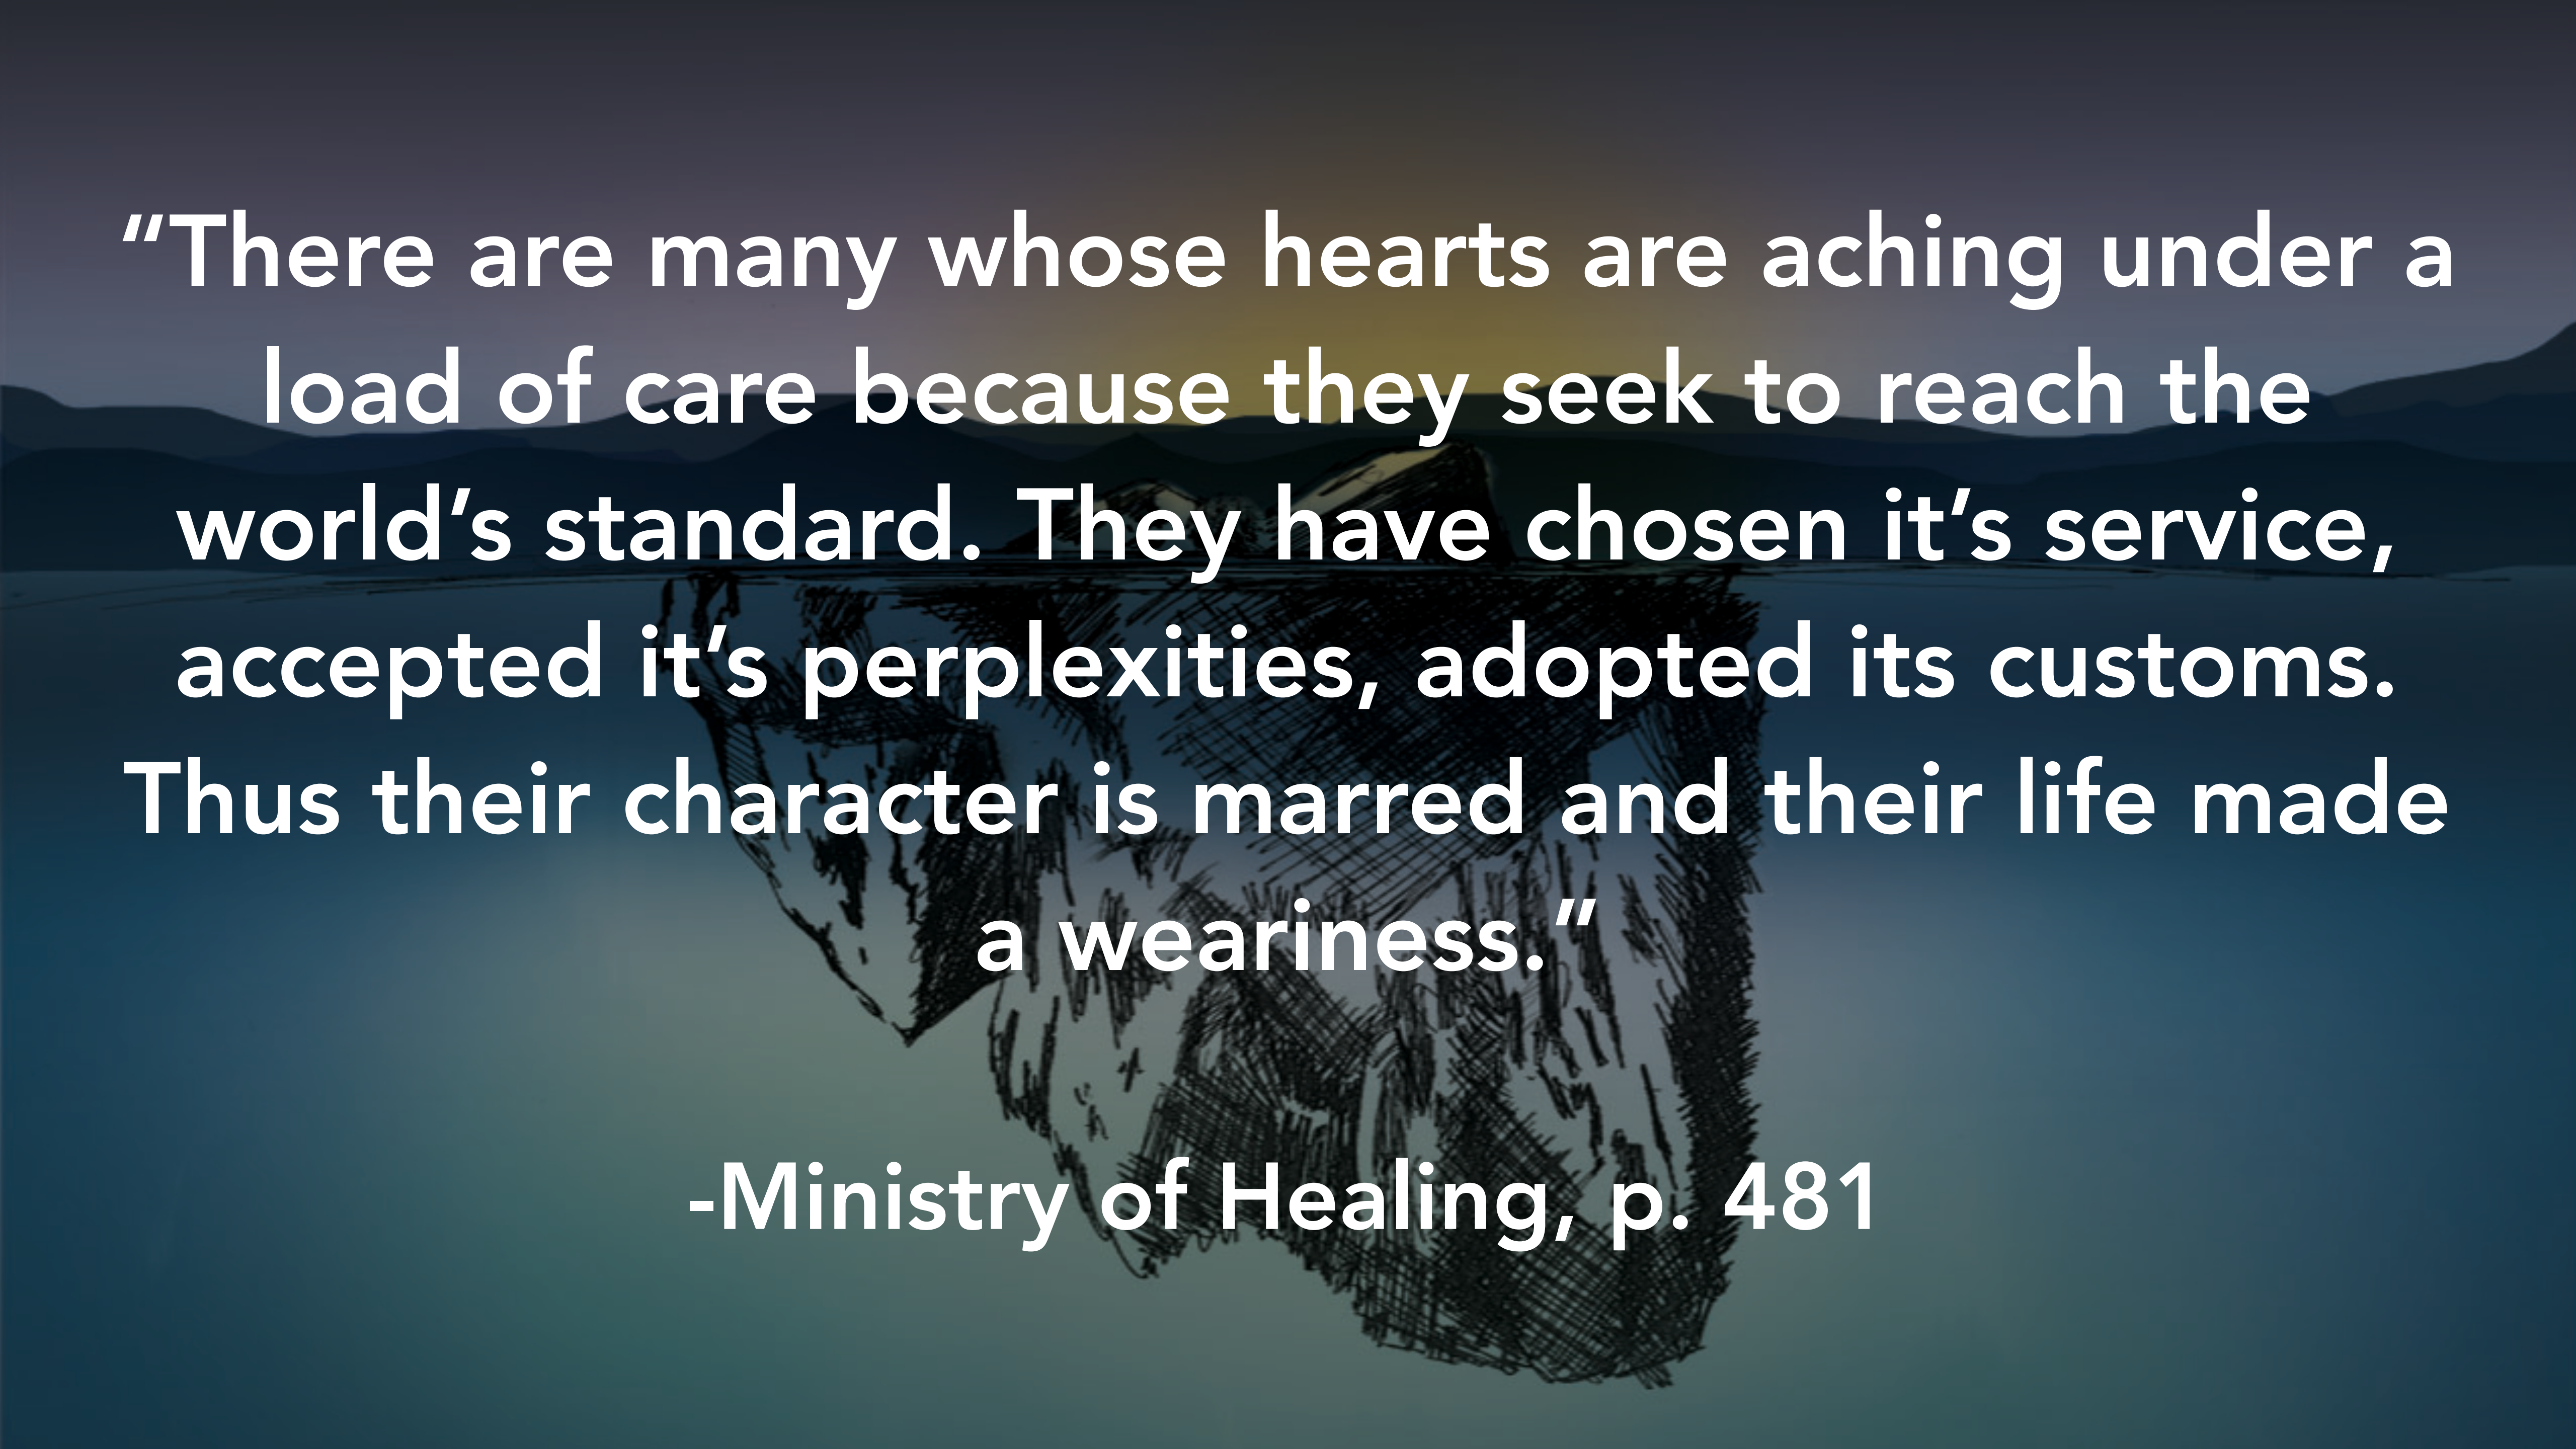

A soul thus kept in possession by the heavenly agencies is impregnable to the assaults of Satan. But unless we do yield ourselves to the control of Christ, we shall be dominated by the wicked one.

-Desire of Ages p.324

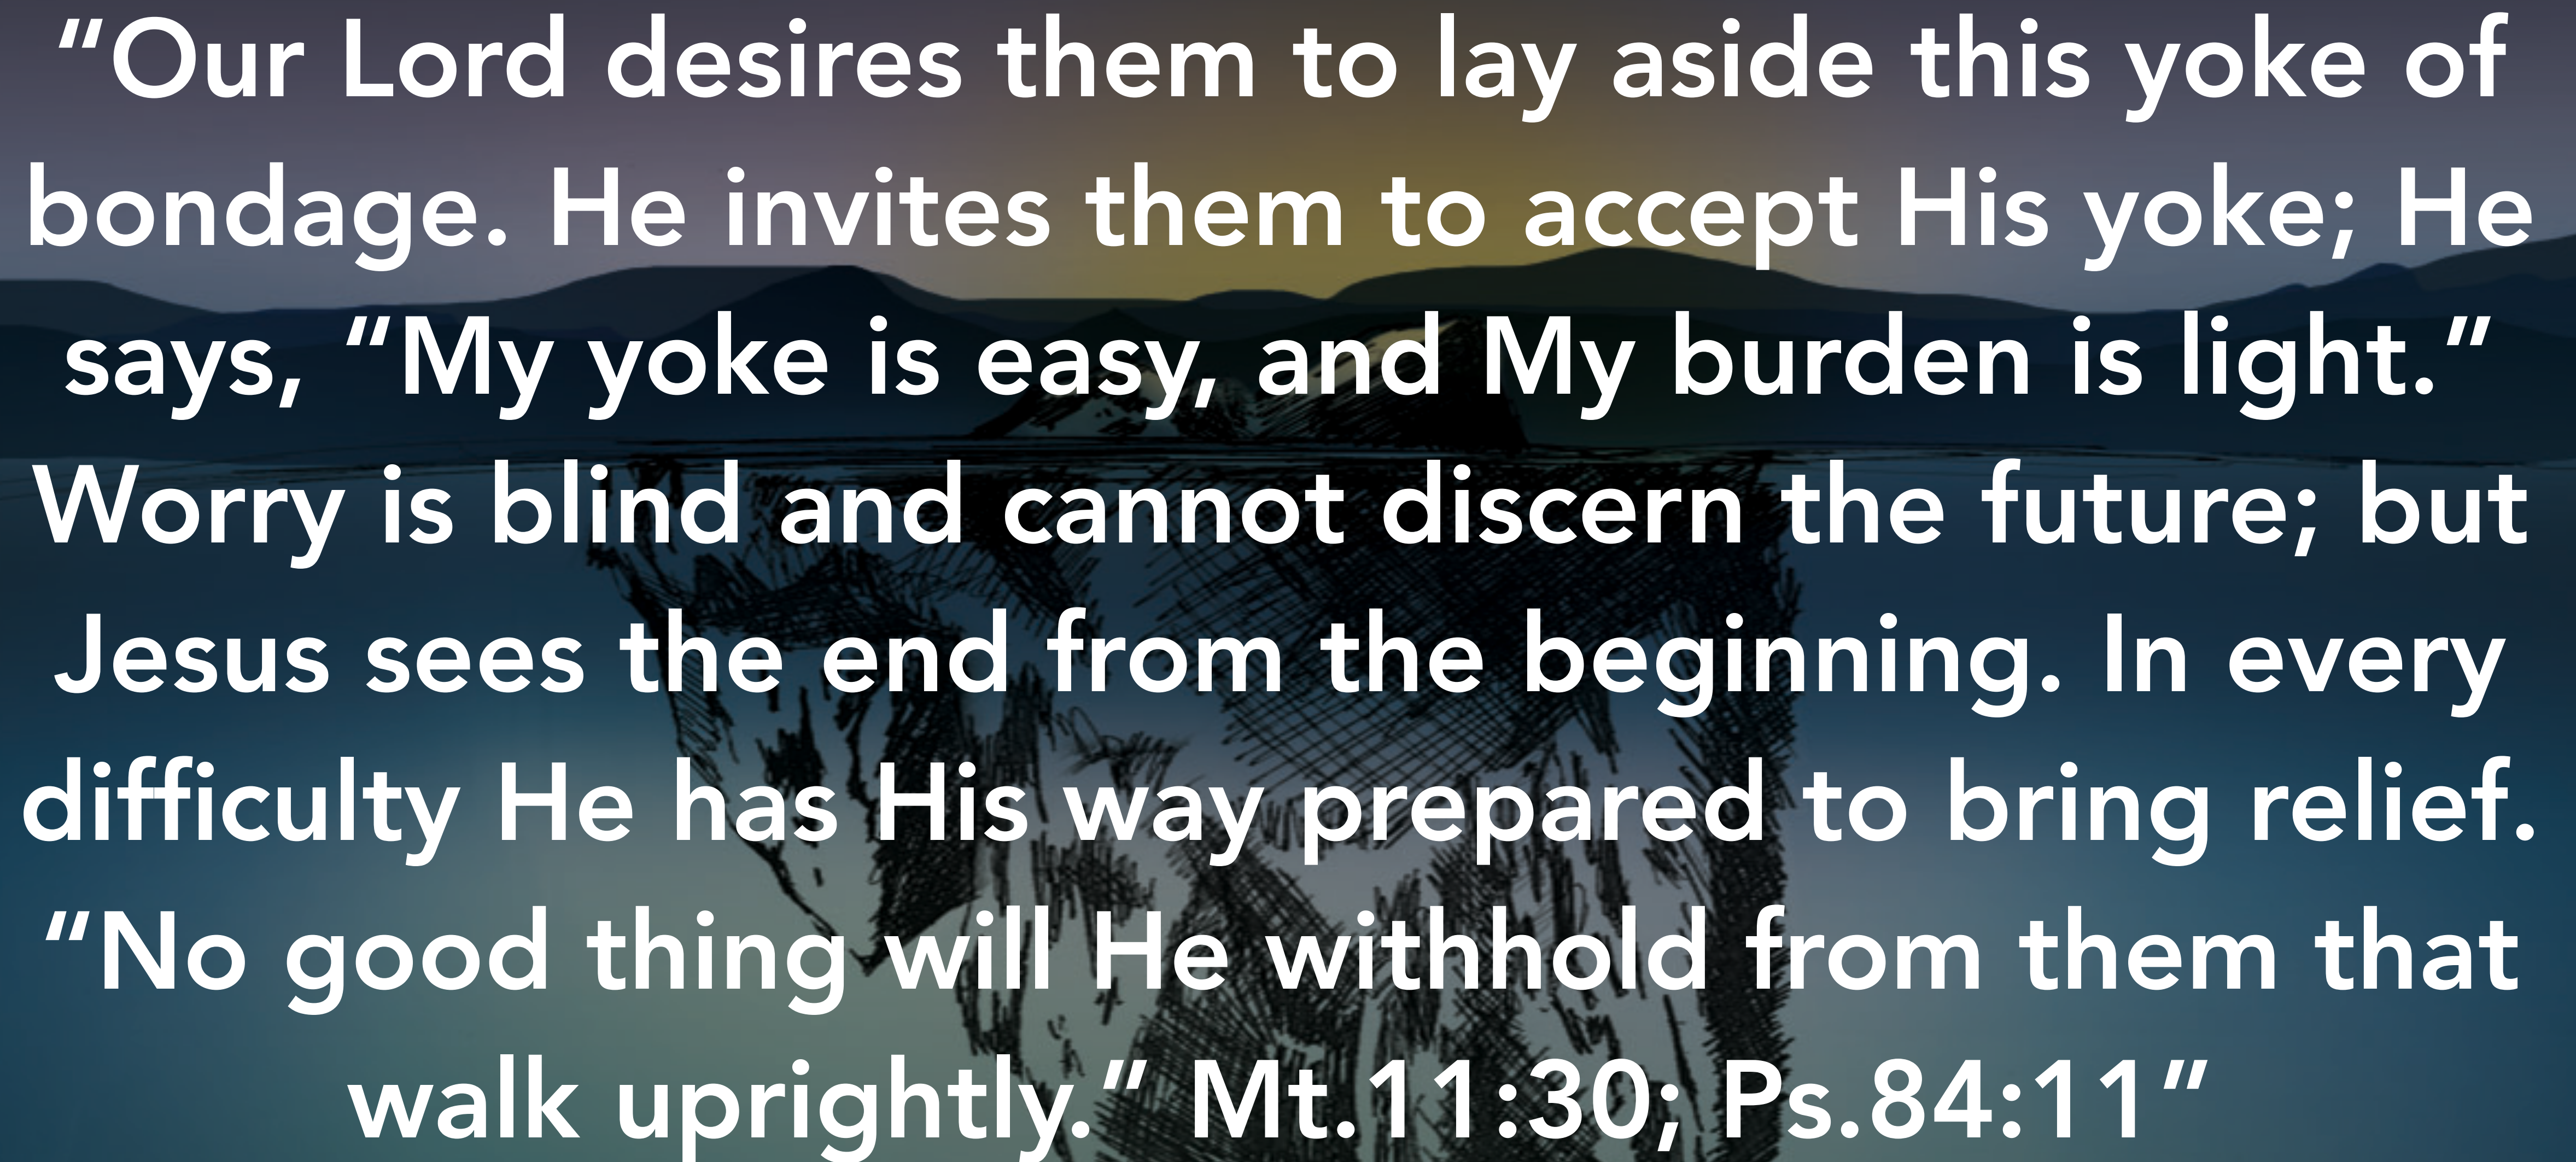

“Many who profess to be Christ’s followers have an anxious, troubled heart because they are afraid to trust themselves with God. They do not make a complete surrender to Him, for they shrink from the consequences that such a surrender may involve. Unless they do make this surrender they cannot find peace.”

-Ministry of Healing, p. 480

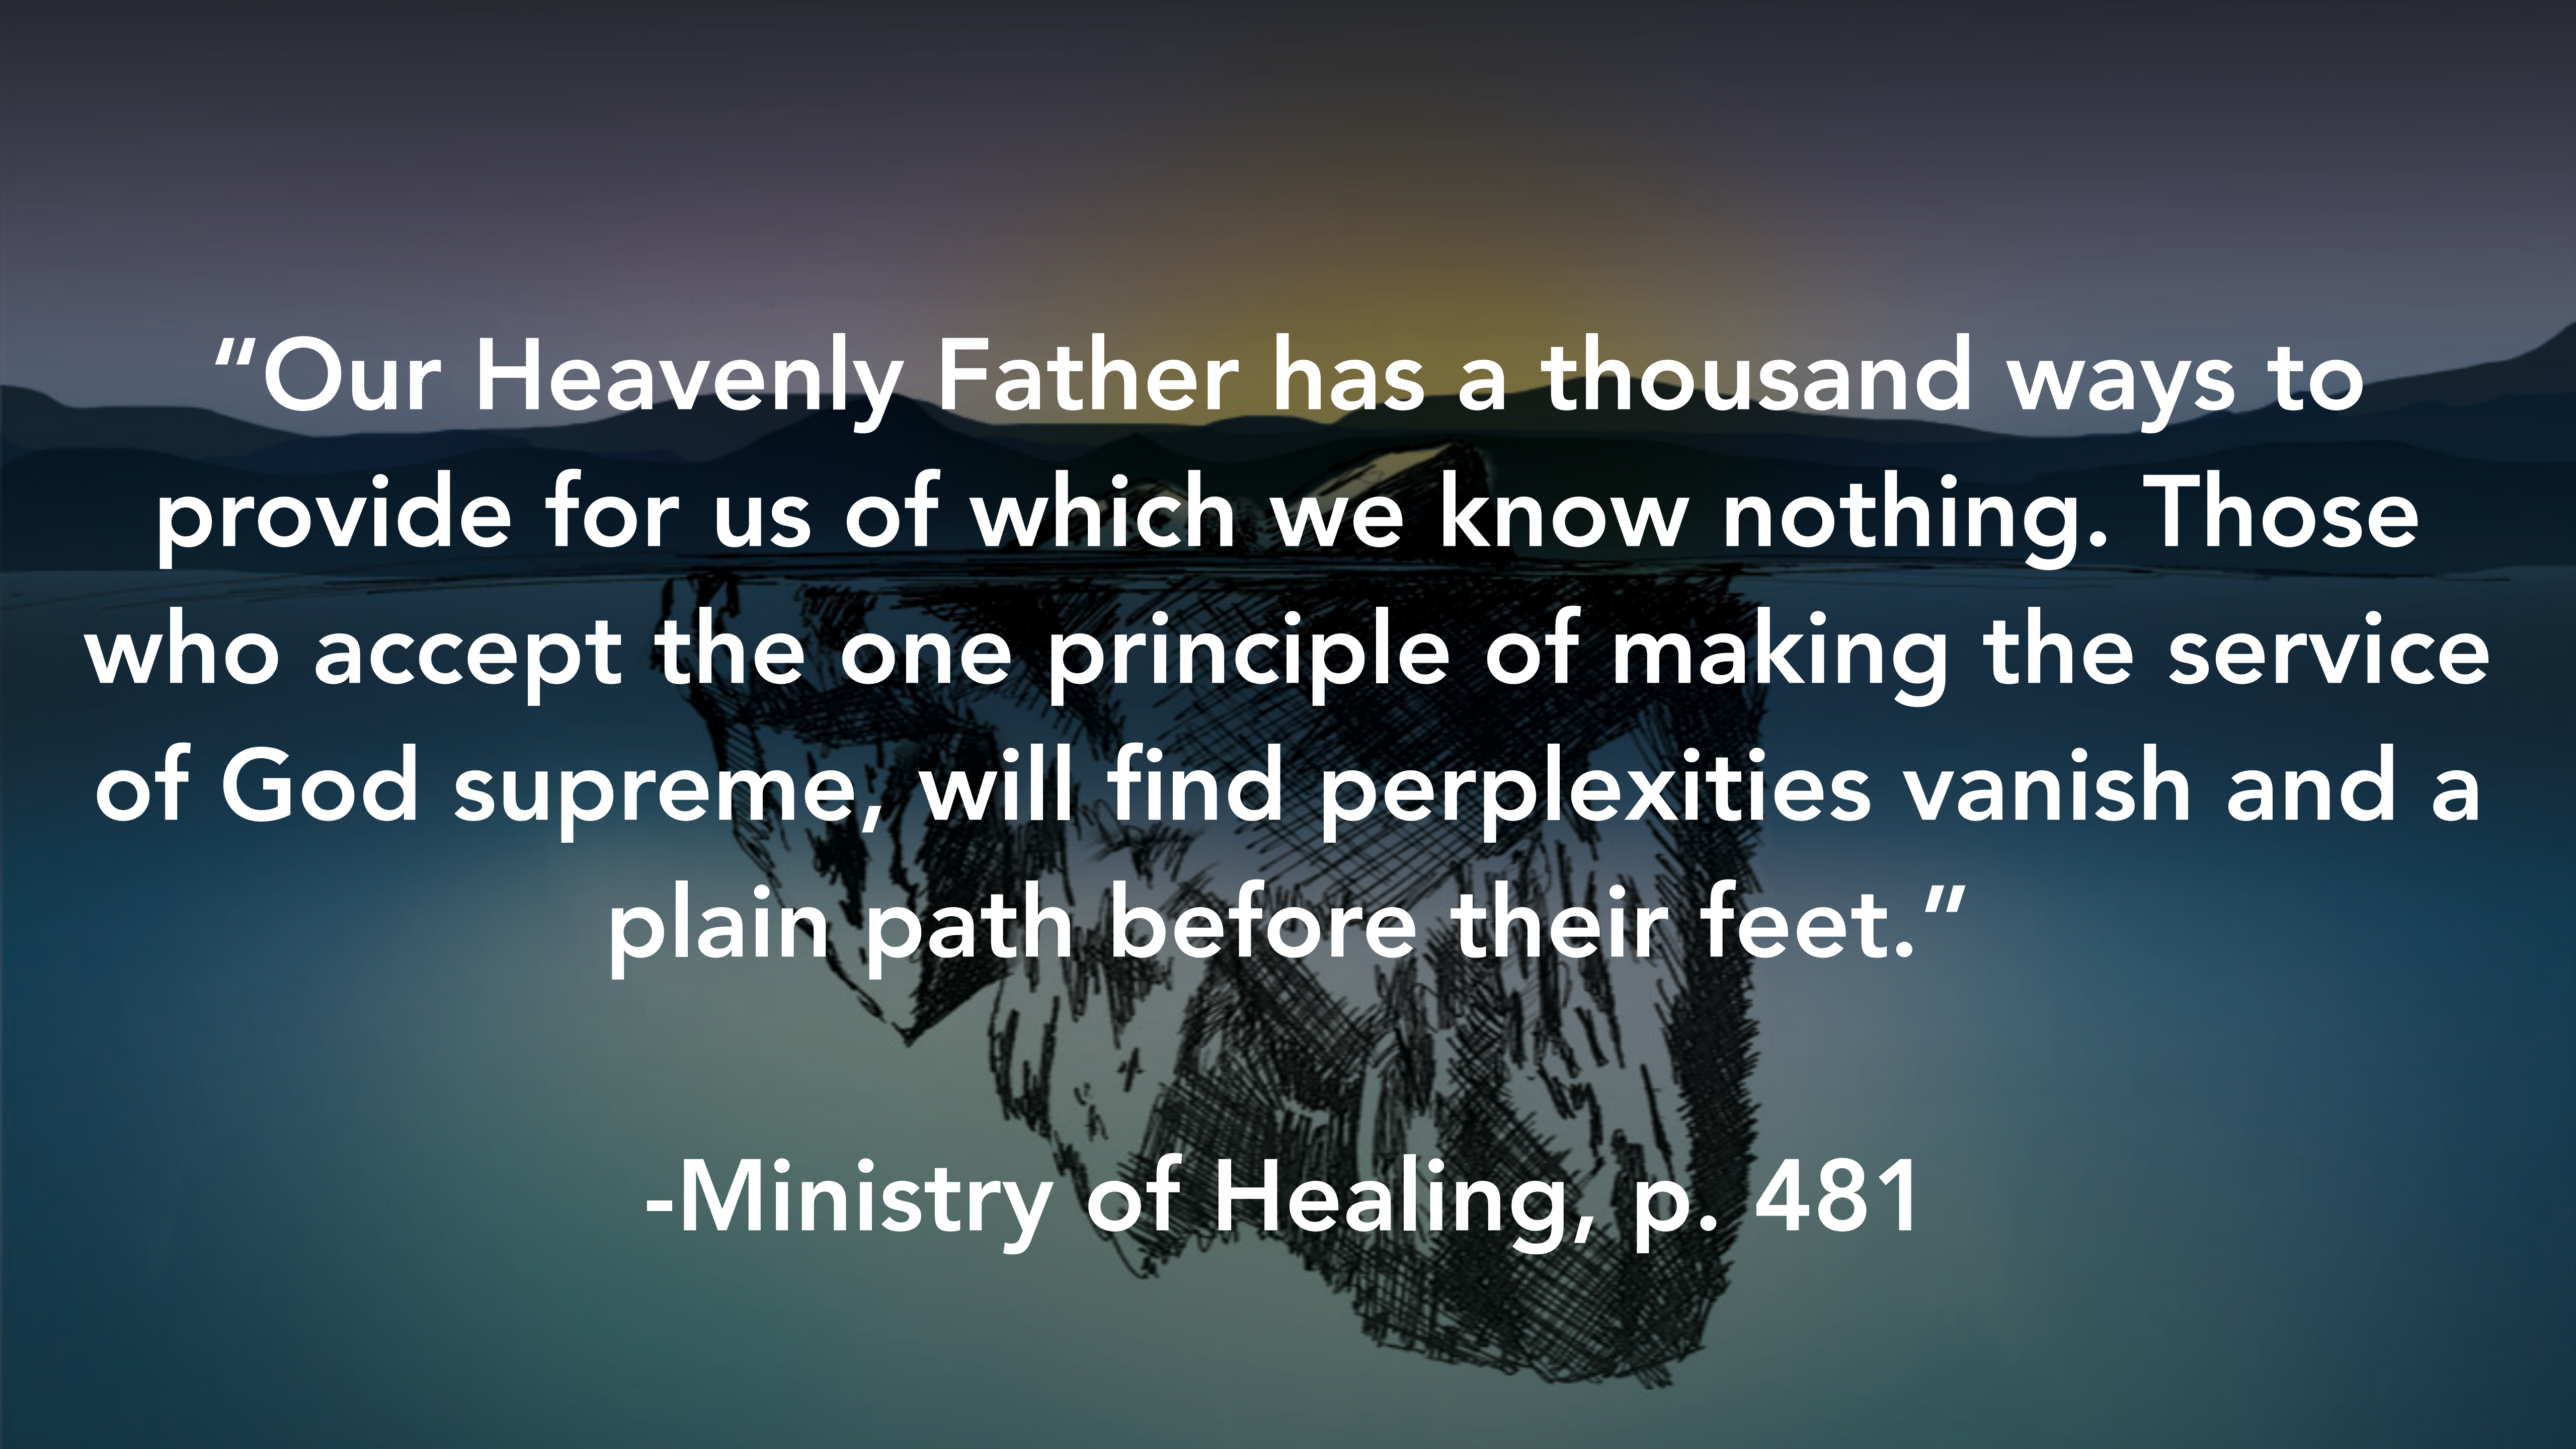

"There are many whose hearts are aching under a load of care because they seek to reach the world's standard. They have chosen it's service, accepted it's perplexities, adopted its customs. Thus their character is marred and their life made a weariness."

-Ministry of Healing, p. 481

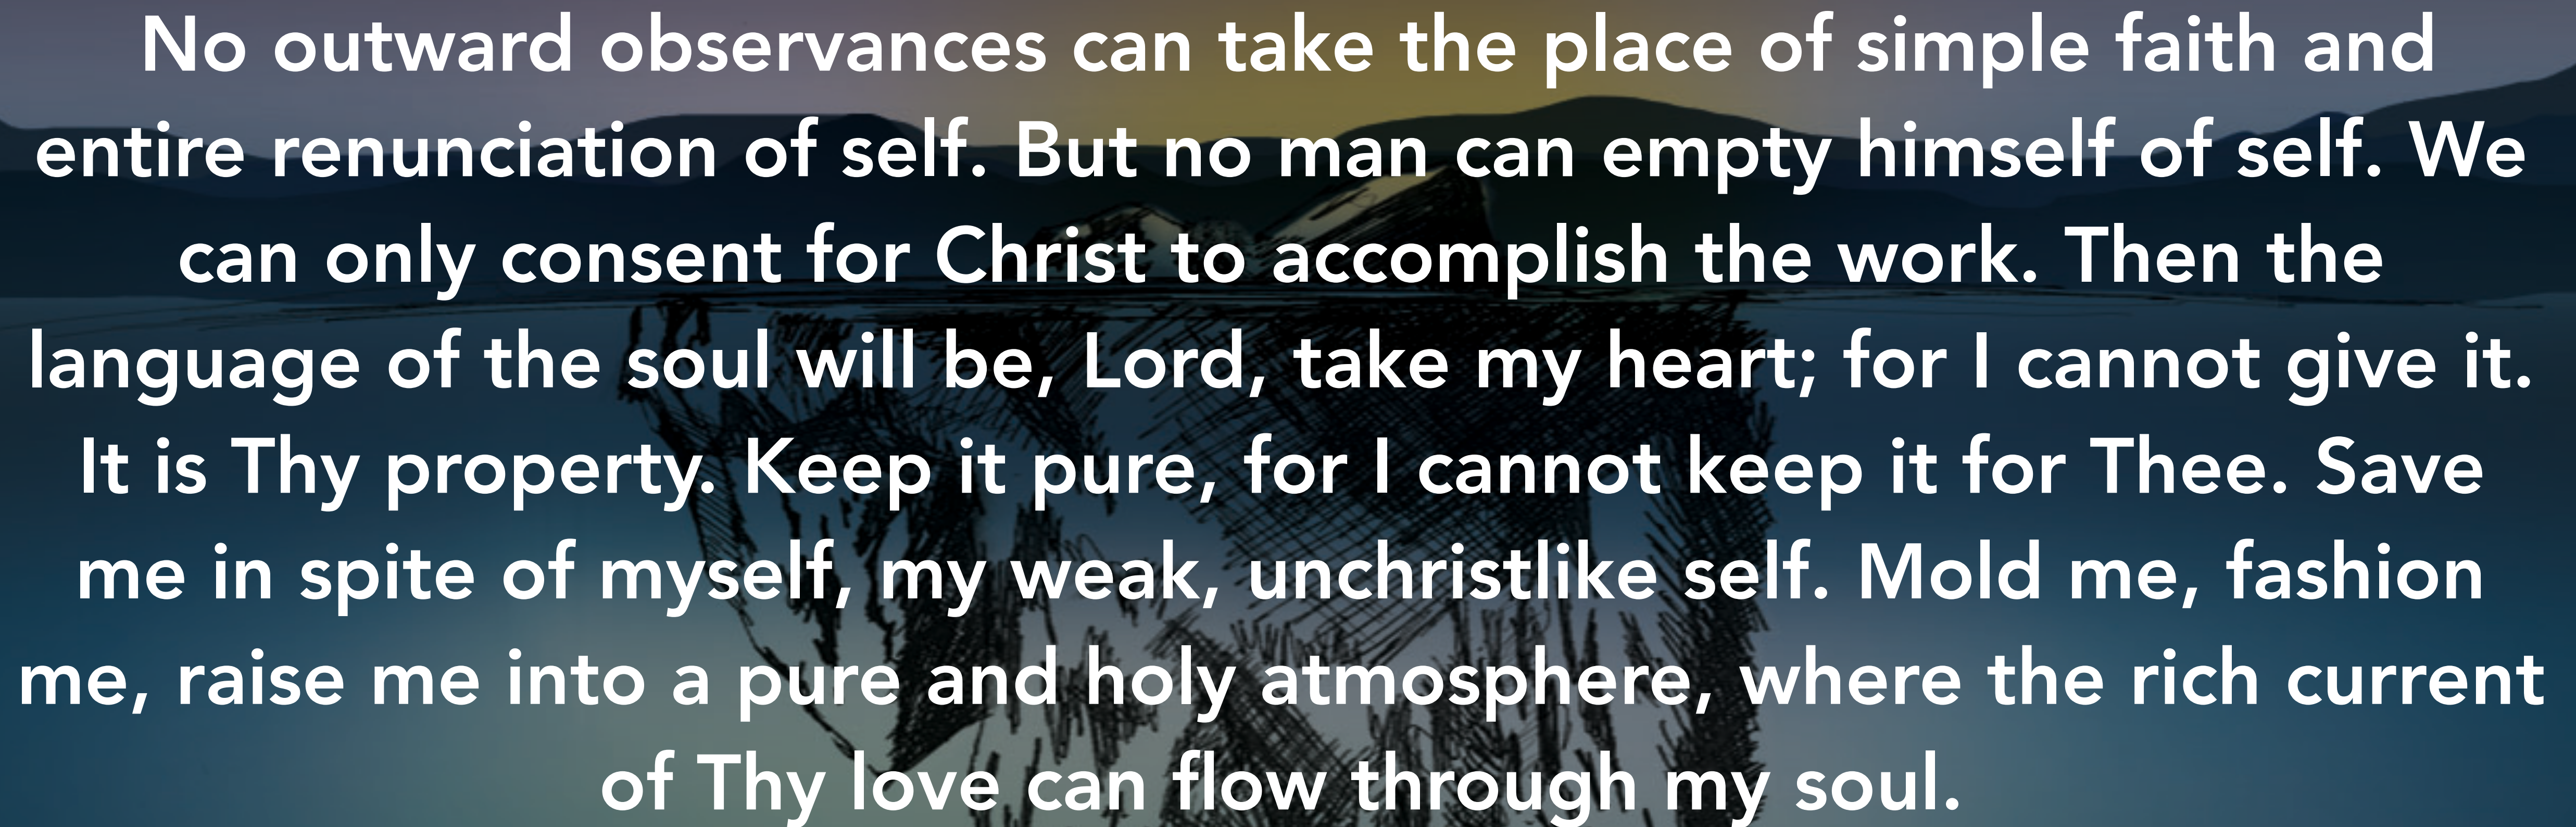

“Our Lord desires them to lay aside this yoke of bondage. He invites them to accept His yoke; He says, “My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.”
Worry is blind and cannot discern the future; but Jesus sees the end from the beginning. In every difficulty He has His way prepared to bring relief.
“No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly.” Mt.11:30; Ps.84:11”

-Ministry of Healing, p. 481

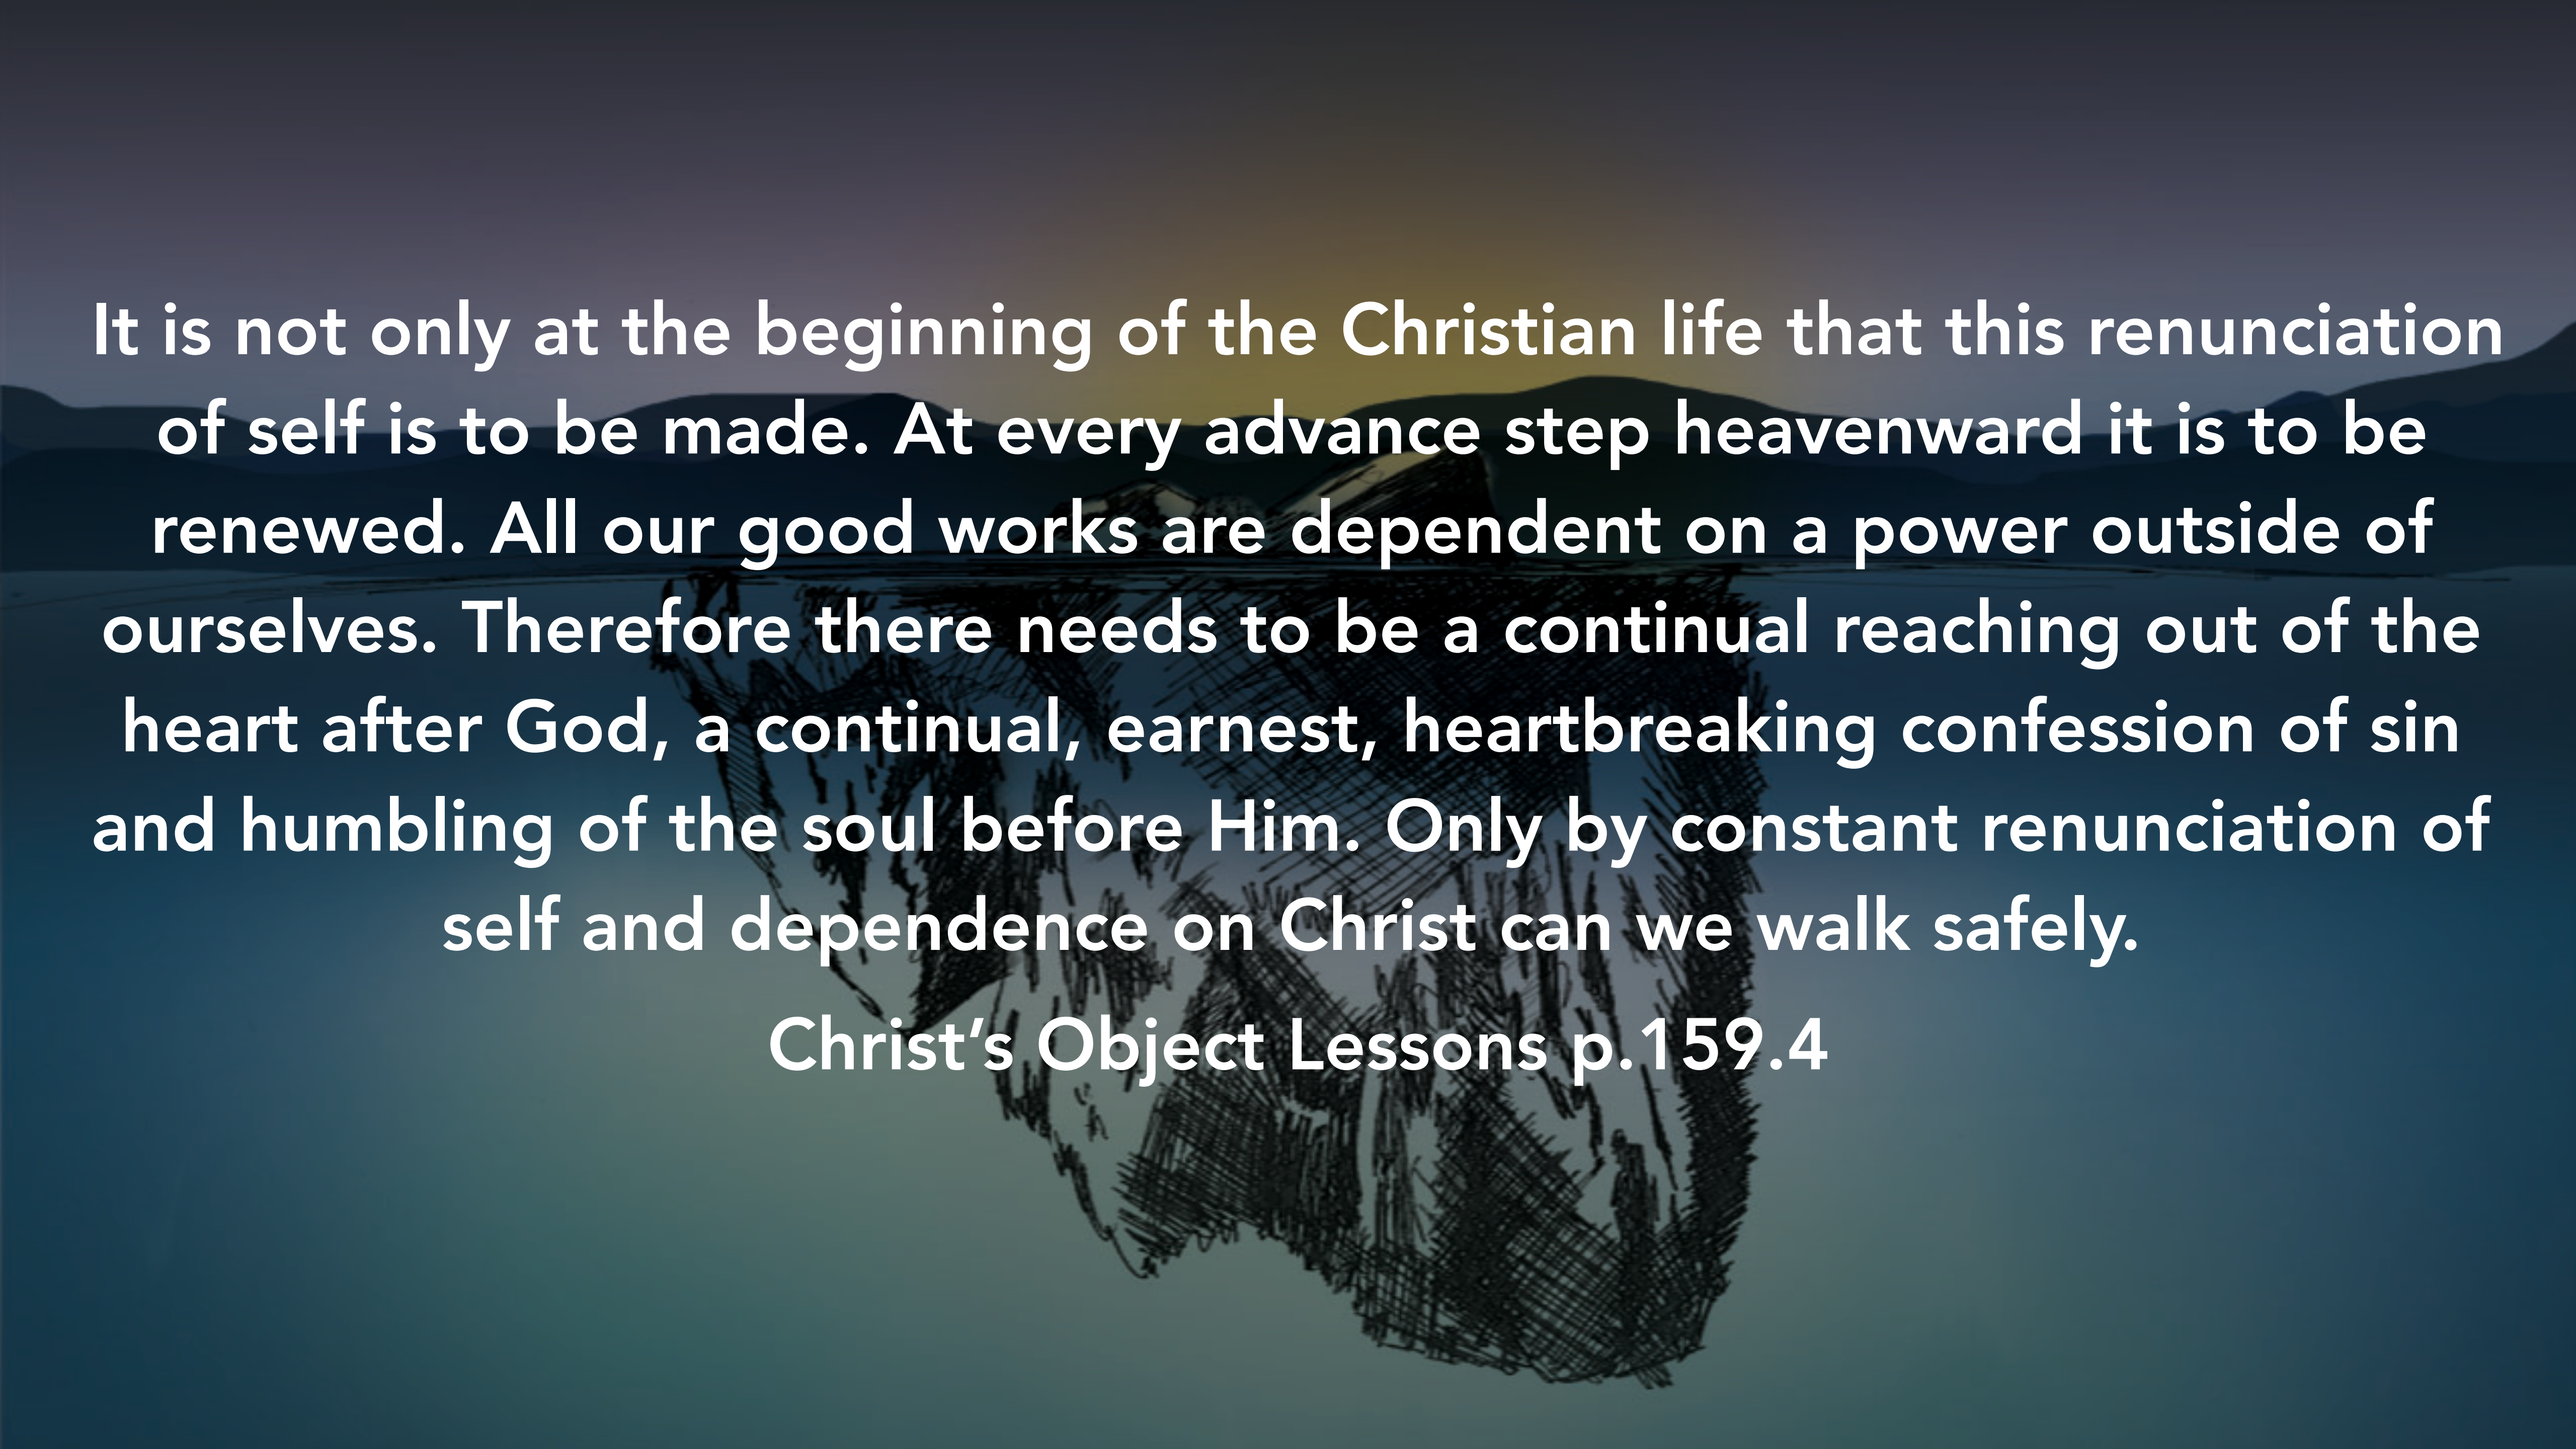

“Our Heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service of God supreme, will find perplexities vanish and a plain path before their feet.”

-Ministry of Healing, p. 481

No outward observances can take the place of simple faith and entire renunciation of self. But no man can empty himself of self. We can only consent for Christ to accomplish the work. Then the language of the soul will be, Lord, take my heart; for I cannot give it. It is Thy property. Keep it pure, for I cannot keep it for Thee. Save me in spite of myself, my weak, unchristlike self. Mold me, fashion me, raise me into a pure and holy atmosphere, where the rich current of Thy love can flow through my soul.

Christ's Object Lessons p.159.3

It is not only at the beginning of the Christian life that this renunciation of self is to be made. At every advance step heavenward it is to be renewed. All our good works are dependent on a power outside of ourselves. Therefore there needs to be a continual reaching out of the heart after God, a continual, earnest, heartbreaking confession of sin and humbling of the soul before Him. Only by constant renunciation of self and dependence on Christ can we walk safely.

Steps TO PERSONAL REVIVAL

What I Got Out of the Book

John 17:17

2 Peter 1:3-4

Isaiah 55:11

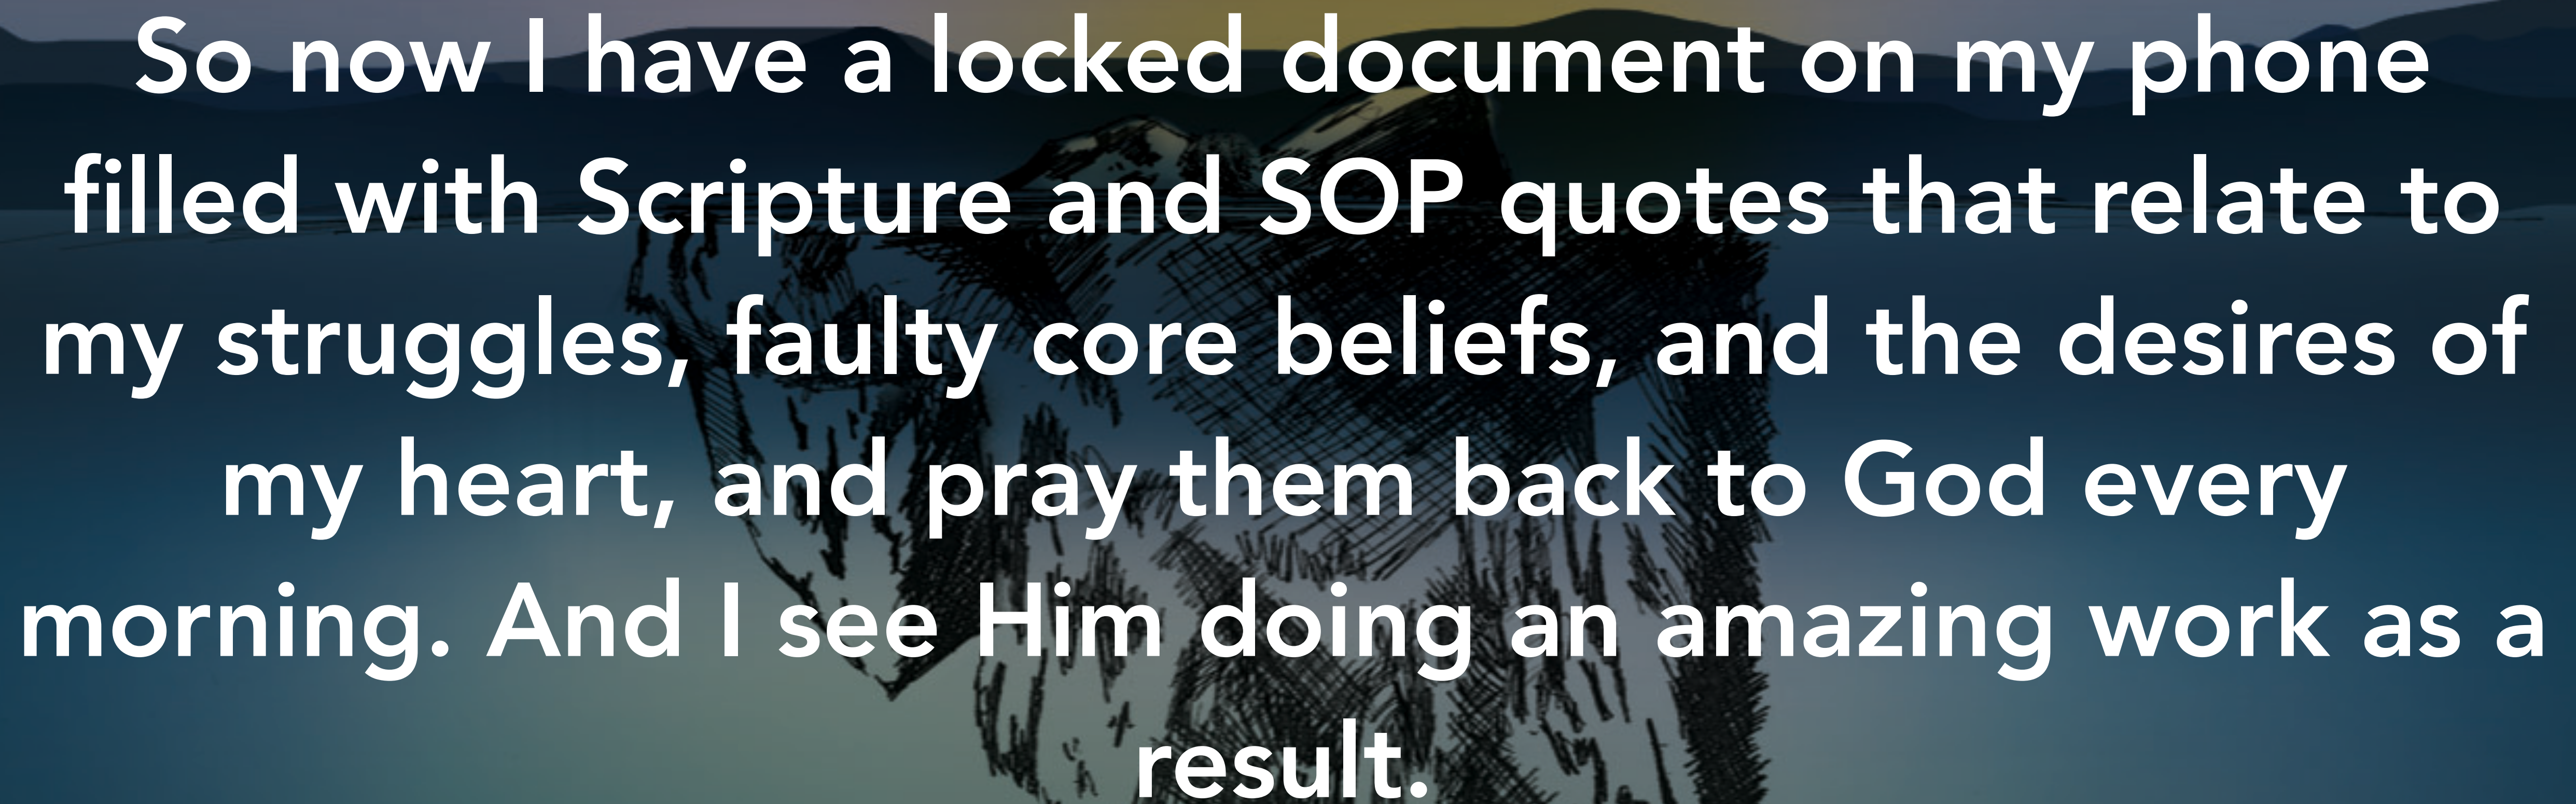

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

Luke 11:13

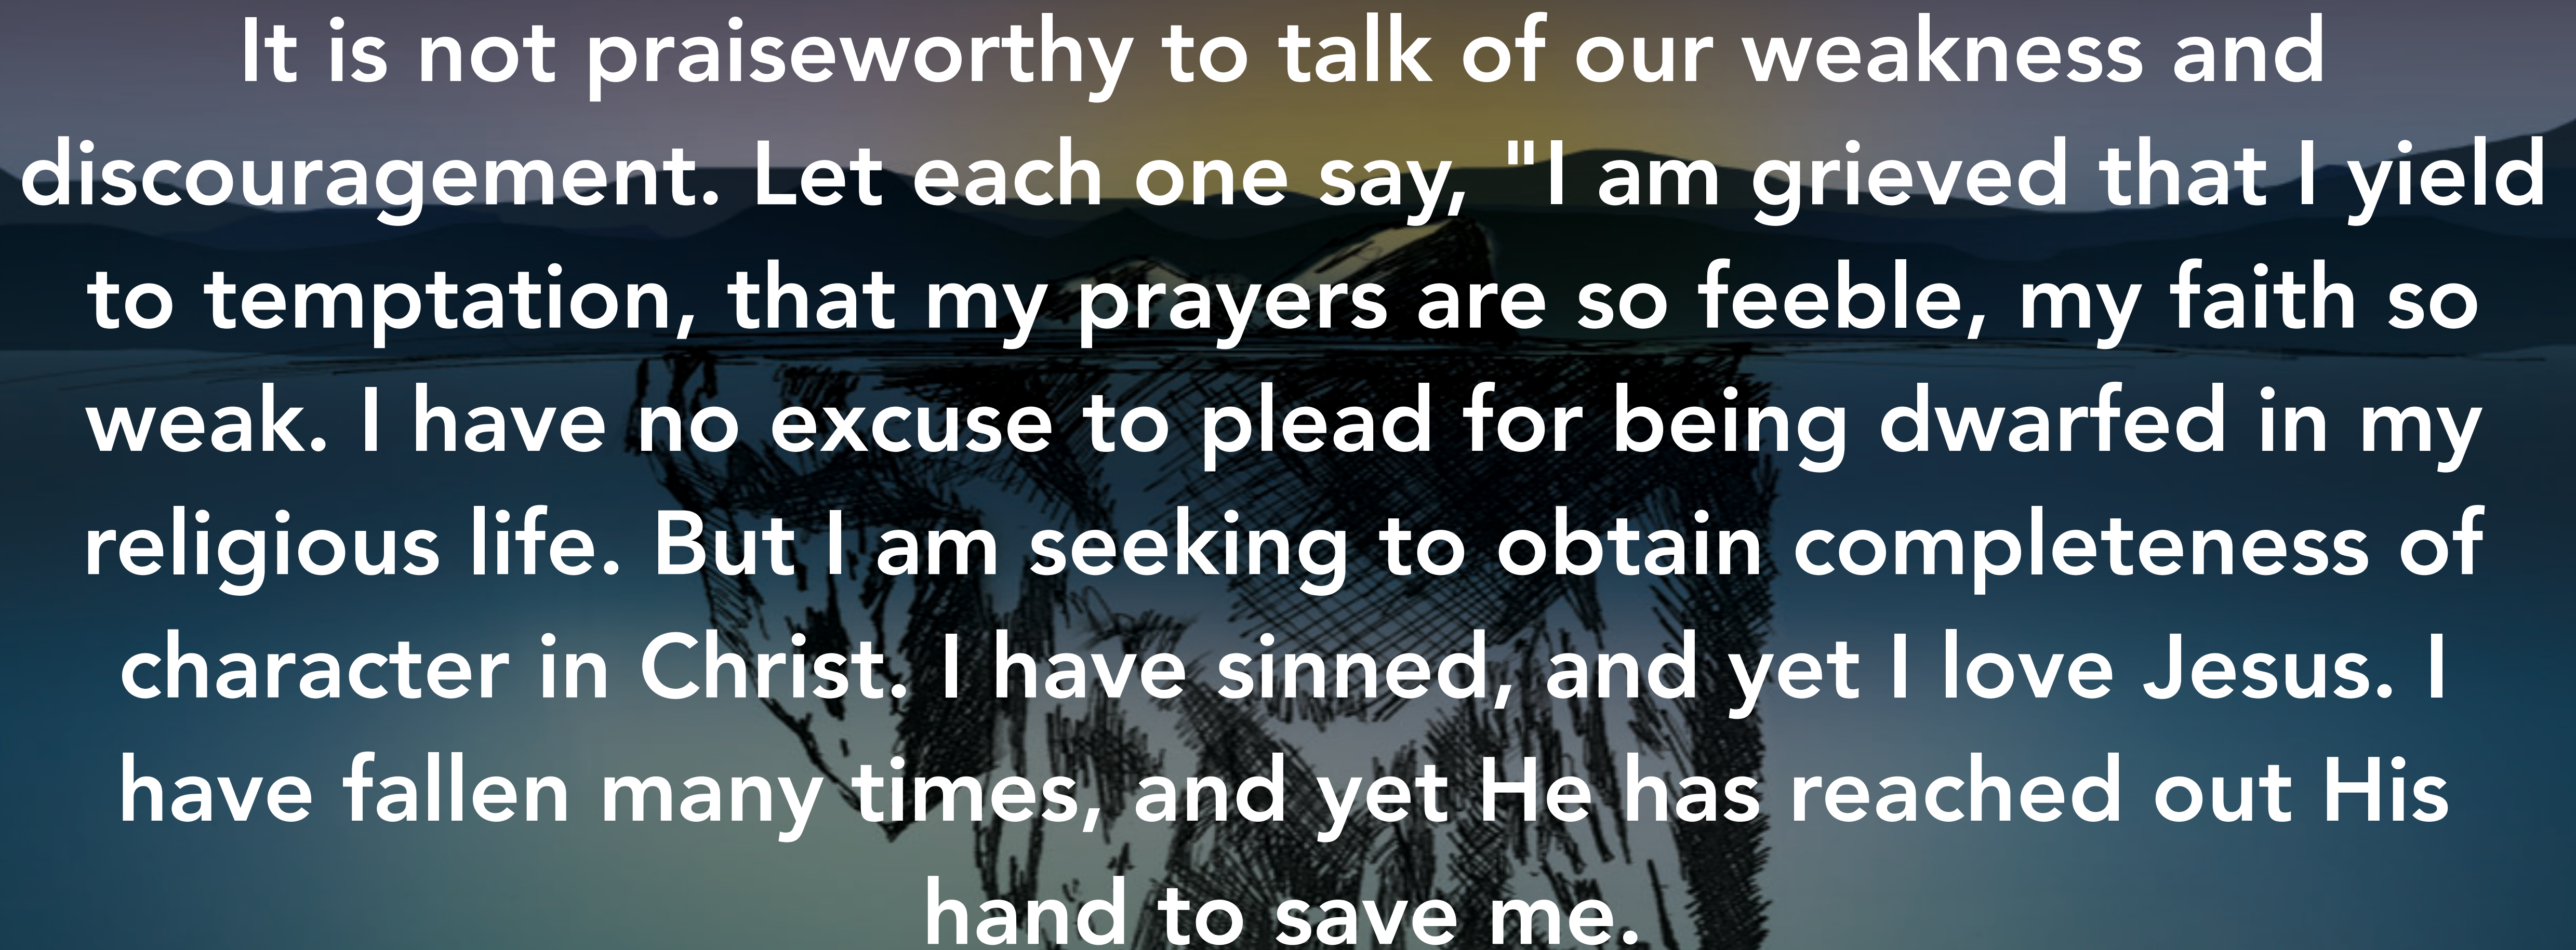

What I Got Out of the Book

In every command and in every promise of the word of God is the power, the very life of God, by which the command may be fulfilled and the promise realized. He who by faith receives the word is receiving the very life and character of God.

–Christ's Object Lessons p.38.1

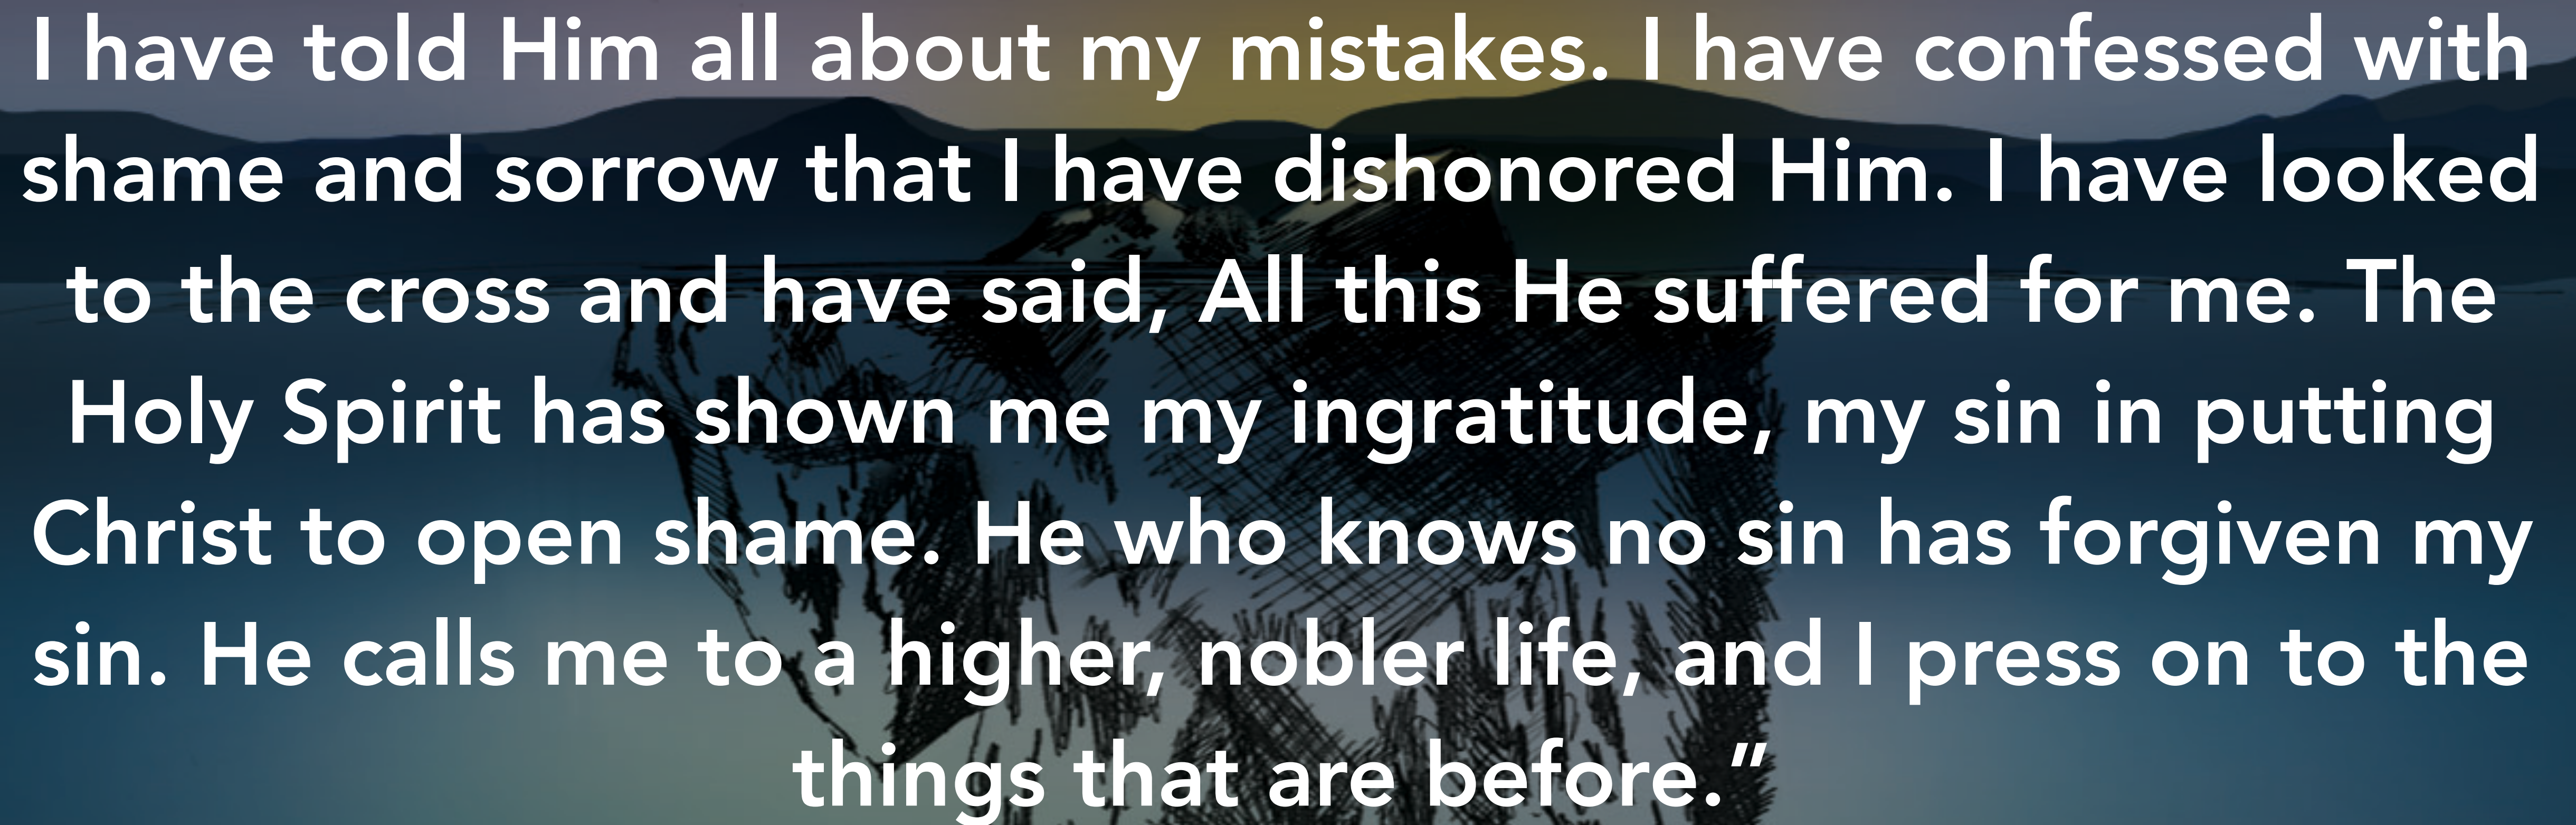

So now I have a locked document on my phone filled with Scripture and SOP quotes that relate to my struggles, faulty core beliefs, and the desires of my heart, and pray them back to God every morning. And I see Him doing an amazing work as a result.

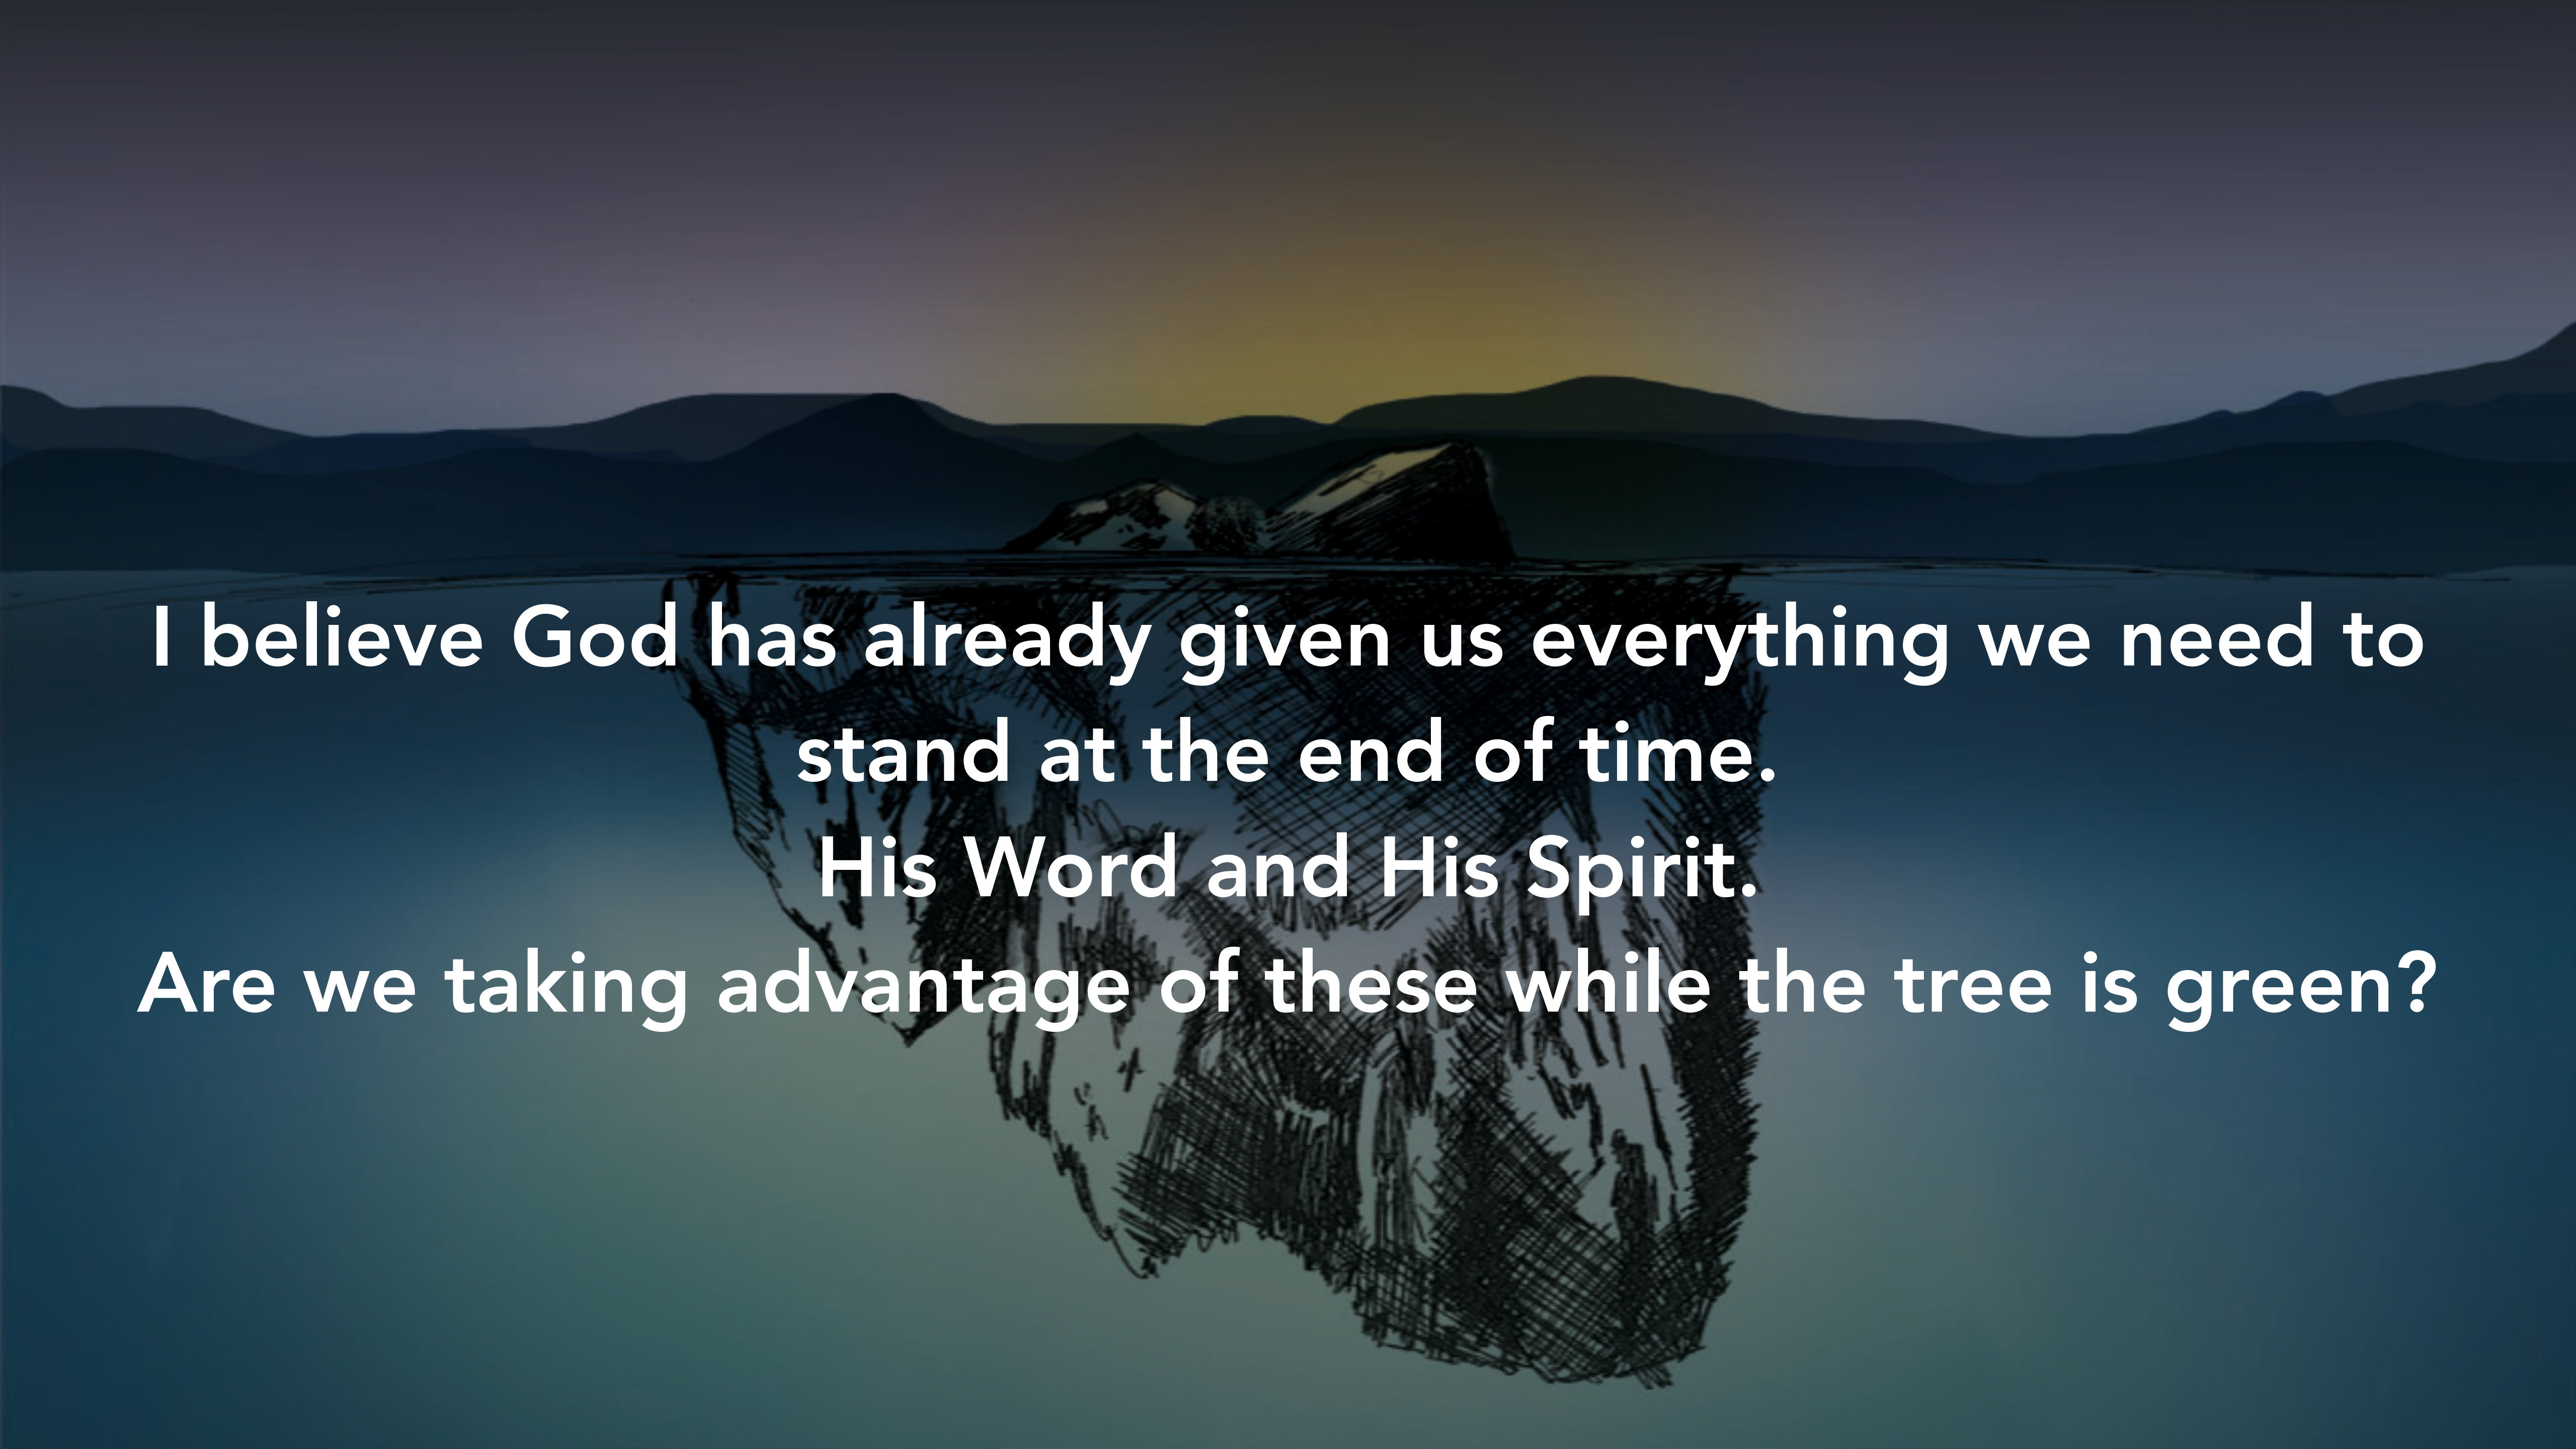

It is not praiseworthy to talk of our weakness and discouragement. Let each one say, "I am grieved that I yield to temptation, that my prayers are so feeble, my faith so weak. I have no excuse to plead for being dwarfed in my religious life. But I am seeking to obtain completeness of character in Christ. I have sinned, and yet I love Jesus. I have fallen many times, and yet He has reached out His hand to save me.

-MS 161, 1897

I have told Him all about my mistakes. I have confessed with shame and sorrow that I have dishonored Him. I have looked to the cross and have said, All this He suffered for me. The Holy Spirit has shown me my ingratitude, my sin in putting Christ to open shame. He who knows no sin has forgiven my sin. He calls me to a higher, nobler life, and I press on to the things that are before."

-MS 161, 1897

I believe God has already given us everything we need to stand at the end of time.
His Word and His Spirit.
Are we taking advantage of these while the tree is green?
